In sending you the attached copy of a brochure entitled "Highway to Harmony" which has just come off the press, I do so with a twofold objective:

Firstly, so that I can be sure you have it available in case, at some time in your busy life, you may find an opportunity to look at it. It deals with the fundamentals, and with some of the achievements, of our much discussed policy on racial affairs.

Secondly, to remind you that you promised to let me have a copy, if one was still available, of the booklet you wrote, so many years ago, on the Anglo-Boer War.

With kind regards,
Yours sincerely,

Adams
